We solicit business from the critical florist grower. In this catalog we have tried to do all possible to list the most profitable and leading strains available today.

We sell only seeds of good vitality, which will grow under normal conditions. All seeds are tested in our own laboratory before shipping.

H. G. German, Seeds, warrants to the extent of the purchase price that seeds or bulbs sold are as described on the container, within recognized tolerances. Seller gives no other or further warranty, express or implied.

We invite inquiries from large growers. Write us about your requirements on any seeds listed in this catalog, and we will answer promptly.

New and Improved Varieties for 1959

We grew many new selections in our trial gardens this year and visited all the leading trial gardens on the West Coast and in the East. From the thousands of new selections we observed, we have chosen the items listed below as the most outstanding.

These new and improved varieties should be of the greatest importance to you. They will help you to stay ahead in this rapidly changing world of today.

Don't miss the new flower for 1959: Alyssum, Pink Heather, the All-America Winner for 1959. Note the fine new Duchesse Aster listed for the first time. Maytime Petunia and Petite Marigolds®, the All-America Selections for 1958, have won the approval of all and will be leading items for years to come. There are also several new and improved Petunias and Snapdragons. The new F₁ Hybrid Cabbages with their outstanding uniformity and vigor have won acclaim, and the new All-America Award winner, Jade Cross Brussels Sprouts, will soon be on every grower's list.

These are just a few of the new items. Study the list below for the complete story.

ANTIRRHINUM (Snapdragon)

"Snapdragons," 1954 edition, lists the leading varieties, gives the number of days from sowing to benching and the number of days from benching to blooming for every month of the year. Available upon request.

We are always glad to help our customers select the best varieties for their conditions and invite inquiries from them. When writing, state the season you want the Snaps to bloom and when you can bench them. We will gladly send suggestions.

"SNAPS" for Greenhouse Forcing Expected Blooming Periods

All blooming periods marked below are based on pinched plants grown on raised benches at 50° F. nights. In order to better describe the many varieties listed, we have divided them into five groups: E, early varieties that flower by Dec. 15; M, mid-season (often called winter-blooming) varieties that bloom from Dec. 15 to Jan. 15; L, those blooming after Jan. 15; S, spring bloomers that are very late and should be planted to follow chrysanthemums at the earliest; and HW, hot-weather varieties for June, July, August and September flowering only.

We recommend the following varieties for greenhouse forcing from late May to early October. Use the F₁ Hybrid varieties for May, June, September, October and November periods. Use the Open-Pollinated varieties (Rockwood) for July, August and early September crops.

WHITE—Crystal White, June Bride, Potomac White.

PINK—Rockwood Summer Pink No. 1, Potomac Pink.

YELLOW—Sunshine, Rockwood Summer Yellow, Potomac Yellow.

LAVENDER—Rockwood's Lavender-Rose.

ASTERS

14,850 S; 65° to 75° F.; 1 to 2 weeks; for spring sales sow 6 weeks before selling date

FORCING ASTERS: Asters form flower buds when axis elongation occurs. This does not occur under daylight periods less than 15 hours, unless the temperature is above 70°. Short days prevent axis elongation, but speed up bud development. The resulting flower is smaller and on a shorter stem.

ADDITIONAL LIGHTING SCHEDULE: 40-watt bulbs, 6 ft. apart and 2 ft. above the plant tops, give sufficient light for this crop. Give 3 hours additional lighting during the months of August, September, October and March. Give 4 hours additional lighting during November and February, and 5 hours additional lighting during December and January. We recommend lights set to come on at 10:00 P.M. Start lights on seed flats as soon as leaves appear and continue lights until first flowers show color.

Pot seedlings as soon as large enough. We highly recommend Jiffy Pots for this. Space 8 x 8 in. in the bench. Don't pinch.

June 10	July 1	Aug. 1	Oct.

We cannot recommend forcing cut-flower types from November to mid-March.

For forcing in the greenhouse and for cloth house culture we recommend the New Ball varieties and new Duchesse; next in desirability are American Branching or The Royals.

We offer only Bodger's Wilt-resistant Strains, which have proved very satisfactory to the trade.

Dwarf Queen. Early flowering; 10 in. high. Wilt-resistant, dwarf base-branching plants with large double flowers freely produced. Will make ideal pot plants. We suggest placing three plants in a 5 or 6-in. pot or single plants in a 3½ or 4-in. pot. Do not mix colors in a pot, for each color blooms at a different time. To bloom in pots follow lighting schedule given above.

Sown Aug. 1, will bloom Dec. 13
 Aug. 20, will bloom Jan. 10
 Sept. 10, will bloom Feb. 10
 Oct. 1, will bloom Mar. 20
 Oct. 19, will bloom Apr. 18

For sowing at times other than above dates, follow above schedule given for forcing cut-flower Asters. Prick off to 2¼-in. pots about three to four weeks after sowing. The final shift to blooming-size pots is made about six weeks after transplanting.

Culture For Forcing Asters

For cut-flower use either in the greenhouse or outside, the new F₁ Hybrids, Duchesse and Ball or Giant Incurved are best.

To produce large bloom size, it is necessary to remove the lower branches and thus limit the number of flowers per plant to five or six. Lateral stems will produce better quality if disbudded to one flower per stem.

For greenhouse cut flowers, try something good, something different. The Bouquet types perform exceptionally well and cut blooms last indefinitely. For home-garden sales, the American Branching or Royals are most popular; however, the new Bouquet types are close to them in popularity.

The Cregos are the ever-popular shaggy types. Early Giants are the same type bloom but earlier, while the Super Giants have the largest blooms with long stiff stems and bloom about 10 days later than the Cregos.

SUPPLIES

Our customers have repeatedly asked that we stock the following supplies. We have always specialized in seeds but hope the addition of these items will be helpful to you.

PLANT-PAKS New, Improved Rigid Formulation—Increased Drainage

These "Paks" save the time consumed in digging and wrapping plants and help you place a far better plant in your customers' hands. Now greatly improved with a more rigid formulation for the entire line, which will give it much longer life on the grower's benches. The number of drainage holes has been increased to insure more positive drainage. The cost saving of shallow containers is a myth. Growers are rapidly finding that cost differentials are overcome by increased costs of labor and materials (watering and fertilizing). The swing is definitely to 3-in.-depth containers.

Featherweight. Lighter to handle, thus reducing shipping costs. "Paks" nest together and reduce storage space to a minimum.

Eye-Appealing. They are neat and attractive when used in any display.

Strong and Durable. Made of molded cellulose, they are resilient; no cracking or breaking. Contain no materials toxic to plants. Will keep their shape and not rot for six months.

Direct Planting. Plant direct, thus saving time and labor. Ready to merchandise.

Waterproof, Yet Porous. Moisture is retained in the soil and healthy root structure is encouraged.

Sizes to Suit Any Grower. They come in many sizes. Find the correct package for your market.

BIRD PEAT POTS

High-quality peat blended with other ingredients according to an exclusive formula for strong, ruggedly built pots that resist chipping during shipping and handling. An extra feature is the new rugged rim, which provides added strength at the vulnerable top area. This helps avoid breakage at the top. Water won't run out through chipped openings. This saves watering time and assures sufficient moisture for the plants. Roots penetrate freely into the nutrient-saturated pots. Plants are fed not only at the start but also as the pot disintegrates after transplanting.

BIRD GROWTH-STIMULATING PLANT BANDS

VITA-BAND D contains root growth until grower chooses to let root through Band. Only quick, slight pressure is needed to crack Band. Do not remove Vita-Band "D" when transplanting. Band disintegrates in the soil, permitting free growth of roots from time of transplant. Nutrient-treated with quickly available plant food.

VITA-BAND 10 for short growing periods.

Will usually contain root growth up to approximately 8 to 10 weeks. Nutrient-treated with quickly available plant food . . . your judgment determines need for additional feeding. Vita-Band 10 is identical to Vita-Band "D" except Vita-Band 10 is removed at time of transplant. Vita-Band "D" is not.

JIFFY-POTS

The New Plant-Growing Container

This molded container is composed of 75% peat and 25% wood fiber, with soluble fertilizers added. These long-lasting pots can be used for many normal potting jobs. They are inexpensive, lightweight, need less watering and provide ideal root aeration. Used extensively for bedding plants, geraniums, hybrid tomatoes, poinsettias, cyclamen, tuberous-rooted begonias, gloxinias, carnations, chrysanthemums, snapdragons, asters, etc. With proper wrapping, plants can be shipped in them.

Jiffy-Pots are vulnerable to damage by careless handling when extremely wet. Dry and partially wet, they are tough and durable. When extremely wet, they should be held in the hand like a drinking glass rather than by the rim or edge.
